

Diversity, Intersectionality, Otherness (FYS): Final Project Grading Rubric

Date: _____

Student: _____

- 1. Website (5) _____
The website draws the viewer in and establishes the focus with clarity.
- 2. Focus (10) _____
The website's focus has appropriate depth and breadth and contains visual material that enhances and amplifies the content.
- 3. Content Organization (5) _____
The website displays an appropriate amount of material relative to the focus and is well organized and aesthetically cohesive.
- 4. Narrative Development (25) _____
The narrative component demonstrates effective exposition, analysis and reasoning. There is no superfluous information or redundancy. The works cited is complete and correctly formatted.
- 5. Narrative Content (40) _____
The narrative content is both informative and argumentative. There is a thesis statement that articulates a tenable position, and the body provides relevant information, context and evidence that lend support and veracity to the thesis. The narrative content paints a clear picture of the topic and is persuasive. The narrative content makes use of at least one scholarly source and incorporates visuals effectively to enhance and amplify the narrative content. (The visuals may be images or videos.)
- 6. Grammar, Style and Mechanics (15) _____
Wording, sentence-length, and paragraph-length are appropriate; the writer uses punctuation, spelling, grammar, and syntax appropriately.

Total Points _____

COMMENTS: